TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

I am writing a character reference at the request of Eric Matthew Rosenthal who I have known for approximately one year. I am personally able to testify to his professional manner and good working relationship while teaching fourth grade at the Korean International School. I have no doubt that he is a hard working and conscientious teacher who has gained the confidence and respect of students and teachers alike. It is my firm belief that his desire to improve his academic credentials will not only benefit himself but be an asset to any school or institute that obtains his services.

If there is any further information that I can supply please do not hesitate to contact me at martin.f.jones1963@gmail.com or +84-0903779005.

Yours sincerely

Martin. F. Jones
