Re: Mr. Eric Rosenthal

I have known Mr. Eric Rosenthal for a period of nine month in my capacity of English Language Teacher at Deokcheon Elementary School. I have found him to be committed and hard-working.

Mr. Rosenthal is a competent English teacher with strong work ethics. He possesses an open, accessible personality, and he is sensitive to the issues involved in cross-cultural communication as well as relationships at a professional level. I consider Mr. Rosenthal to be a very competent specialist in such fields as English language teaching methodology, educational technologies, language testing, assessment, and material design.

Mr. Rosenthal coordinated a three-week intensive English summer camp for Korean elementary school students at Deokcheon Elementary School. He also coordinated a similar winter camp at his previous school, Sanghak elementary school. He was responsible for the design and execution of the camp's syllabus. He developed ESL teaching materials from a broad range of sources - books, academic journals, magazines, and newspapers. Under his supervision students read books, wrote diaries and prepared for tests. He participated in the EPIK program's 2009 In-Service Training seminar. At this 5 day seminar he engaged in discussions and lessons about current teaching methodologies and practices. In addition to teaching Mr. Rosenthal actively participated in extra-curricular activities such as a soccer team and studied Korean language twice a week at a local academy.

I have no doubt that in view of his qualifications and experience Mr. Rosenthal will be a productive contributor to the work of any institution and as a conscientious, honest and open-minded person will be a valuable member of a team of colleagues
